

Irishness on Parade: St Patrick's Day in Brisbane 1885-2019

by Rodney and Robin Sullivan

March 11 @ 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm

This presentation surveys St Patrick's Day parades in Brisbane from their origin in 1885 to 2019. Some attention will be paid to fluctuations in the relative importance attached to events in Ireland and Australia. The processions show how Irishness was portrayed and changed over time. They responded to changing national and international contexts. St Patrick's Day marchers, floats and symbols reflected the changing priorities of participants over the decades.
